

GREENBRIAR

Nineteen Sixty - Seven

The 1967 Greenbriar
Volume IV

A student publication of Wayne Technical Institute
Goldsboro, North Carolina

Onward To New

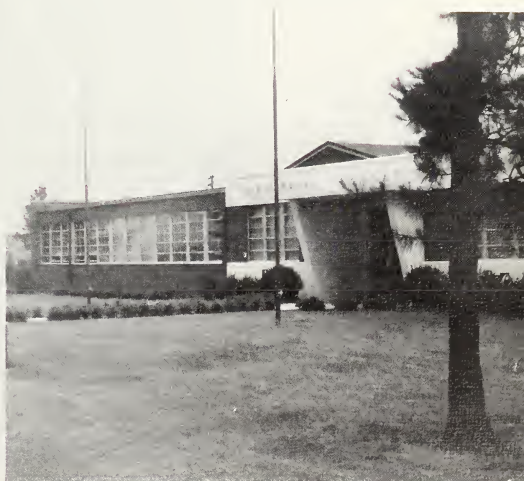

Horizons . . .

Foreword

Run! Move fast!
As time and day light
Go on with haste.
Don't look back
On memories bright,
Run—no time to waste!
Move on—to new horizons.

Slow down! Think!
O. K.—Move, seconds have gone by
And youth doesn't last forever.
Life—good or bad
Is gone with a sigh
To return never.
Move on—to new horizons.

Grace Jones

Dedication

Dedication is received from and now given to Mr. Earl Hardison. In this way, the 1967 Greenbrier staff wishes to express our appreciation to Mr. Hardison for his loyalty, leadership, and hard work towards the growth and fulfillment of Wayne Technical Institute; to meet the future needs of us as students and young adults in our continuous search toward new horizons.

Mr. Hardison does much paper work.

Relaxation is important to everyone.

Plans for construction is a big part of his job.

Putting to practice what has been learned in classes.

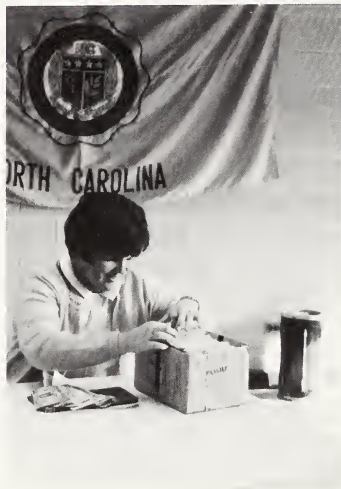

"I wanna go home!"

This is carrying the work-study plan just a little too far!

Court

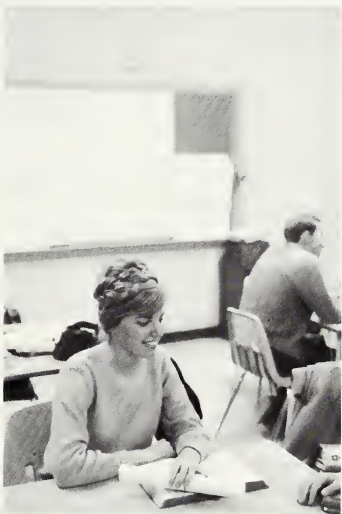

Grace Jones
Good grief, Charlie Brown, what's happening?

Dianne Cooke
Boy, is she ever in for a surprise!

Tina Moreing
Wish they all could be California girls.

Donna Hinnant
Who says the halls of WTI are dull?

Miss Wayne Tech

MISS WAYNE TECH
Linda Windom

She even makes the books look good.

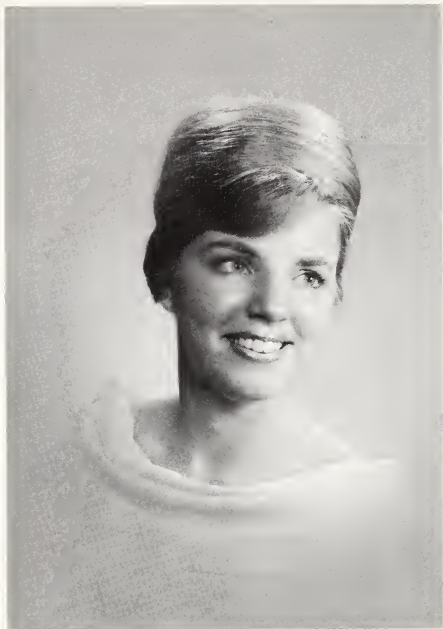

Friendliness is just one of the virtues of our queen.

She must have studied!

Court

Tina Moreing
Is it true blondes have more fun?

Candy Rogers
Will the wise-guy who took the ribbon out of my typewriter please bring it back.

Grace Jones
Anyone for jeeping?

Sheila Millard
Holy cow ! What's Sam doing now?

Departments

Dental Assisting

Who put the beer in the water syringe?

Who said putting our heads together would get us somewhere?

The Invaders are here!

The dentist was kind of tough on him, wouldn't you say?

Ha! Ha! You didn't think I could do it, did you?

They say you always win the third time.

No! No! She said the bowl, not my mouth!

Don't cry girls, everybody has one.

Now for your first lesson... This is a swollen tooth.

Four-handed dental assisting is better than four-handed dentistry.

Dental Assisting

You say your name is Liz Taylor?

Smile, it may be your last chance.

Who said $E=MC^2$?

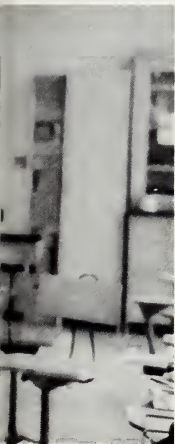

Dental Hygiene

I'm telling you if you don't watch it, it will explode!!!

President: Kathy Perry, Vice President: Diane Cook, Secretary: Kay Fulford, Treasurer: Cynthia Beachem say, "Our best game is cleaning teeth." "What's yours?"

Quick! Quick! Pass the answer.

Kathy Perry on the backside looking forward.

What! Me carve those silly teeth?

Dental Hygiene

CLASS OFFICERS: Treasurer:
Linda Sutton, Secretary:
Glenna Bell, President: Cleta
Colvard, Vice-President:
Shirley Clark.

Did you say Richard Burton had an appointment at 1:00?

Born in 1870? You've got to be kidding me!

It's what's behind that counts.

Dental Hygienists?

Who pressed the de-activator button?

Business

Two Graces gracing the Office Machines room.

Work Study students like Alice Worley are a great help to the faculty and staff.

This looks like a real interested class, doesn't it.

Is typing really all that interesting.

Dictaphones help build speed in shorthand.

Dennis, can't you ever be on time for Business Law class?

Mr. Neal with his smallest class of the day—Business Finance.

Who is helping who in Mr. Medford's Accounting class?

Mrs. Phipps adds charm to her typing classes.

Business

First Office Machines class of the day. Can't you tell?

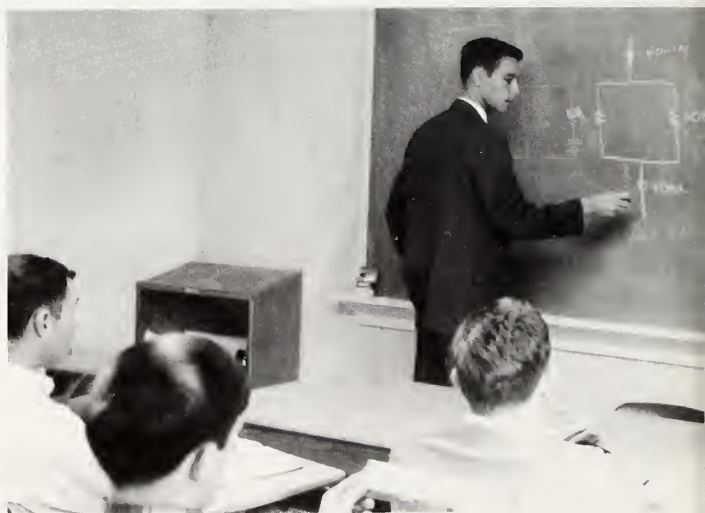

Bad focus? Clear enough just to find out who the real "tinkers" were!

"Let's hear it one more time for the bartender!"

"Vic drives the get-away car..."

"Now we know..."

"So, all I do is lock the door; and I have the whole room to myself."

"Hey, Jerry, do you smell something burning?"

"We'll drop Frank from 6,000 ft..."

"Each table has its own lock." Ha!

"You may as well flunk now and avoid the rush."

Electronics

"Good Luck!"

"Mr. Strohm, are we expected to know this?"

Agricultural Technology

"Don't move—I've dropped my contact!"

"Who done it?"

"Cool it, Guys."

Forestry

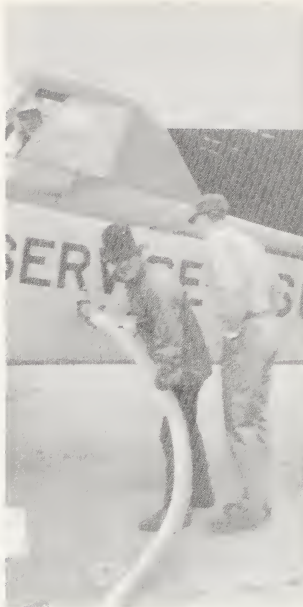

"Alright class, get out a sheet of paper. It's time for a 'Happy Hour'."

"Careful boys, don't break it."

Forestry

"Don't be impatient, your turn is coming."

If you are real careful, and don't make much noise, you may catch a Forestry boy studying.

"Careful boys, don't wake up the dorm mother."

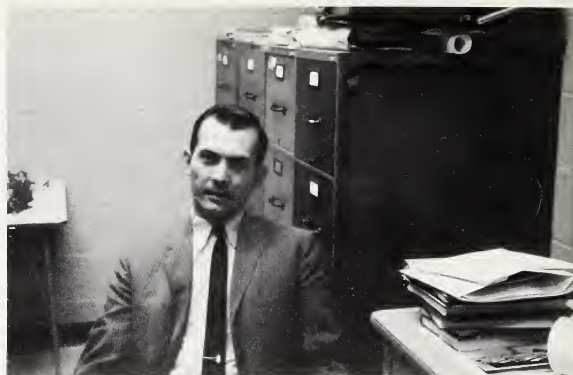

"Cheer up boys, only five more miles to go."

"No, this isn't a Hemi covered Dragster."

Soil Conservation

"We love our students."—"We love our students!?"

"Are you sure there's a course called Frog 103?"

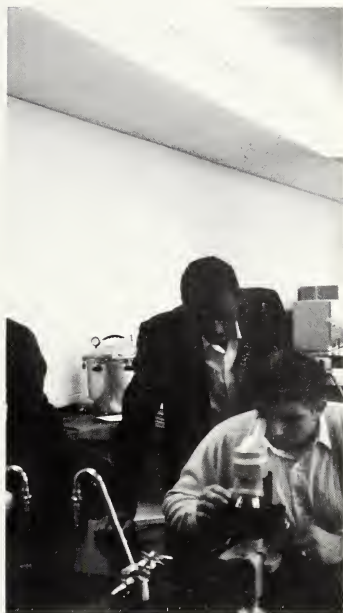

"Two gaintsteps, one butterfly steps, and that's it!"

"You move one more step and you've had it."

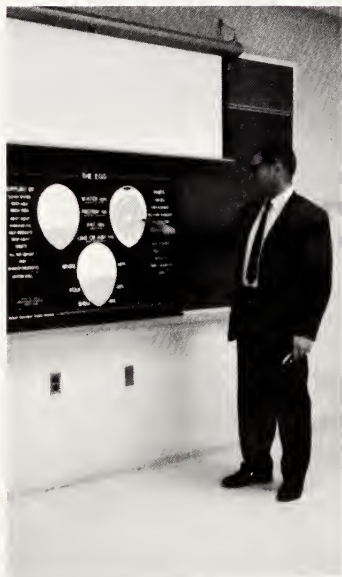

"What's she doing now?"

"Once every week, Drains in every drain."

"It is too my golf ball. See."

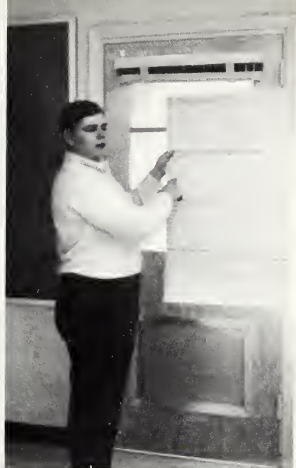

Mr. Warren performs.

Guess who didn't do his homework.

"Are you sure this is the Certified Seed tag?"

"See, Smarty, I am all booked up!"

"This, Boys, is the Playmate of the Month."

Poultry and Livestock

The mechanics department, as many others, is expanding.

Mechanics

Mr. Hardison solving a complex mechanical problem.

Tommy Taylor being confused by an elusive malfunction.

It'll never work again.

Mechanics

Jerry, what's happening!

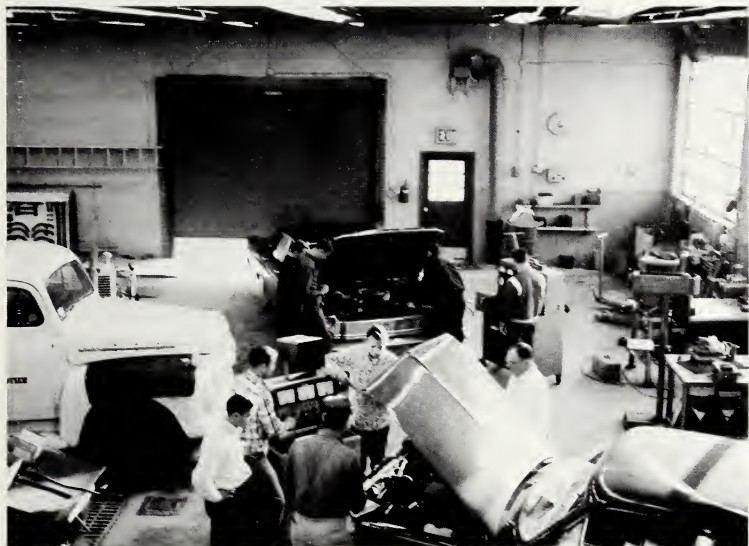

Mr. Keyzer knows a lot about auto mechanics, and he is glad to share it.

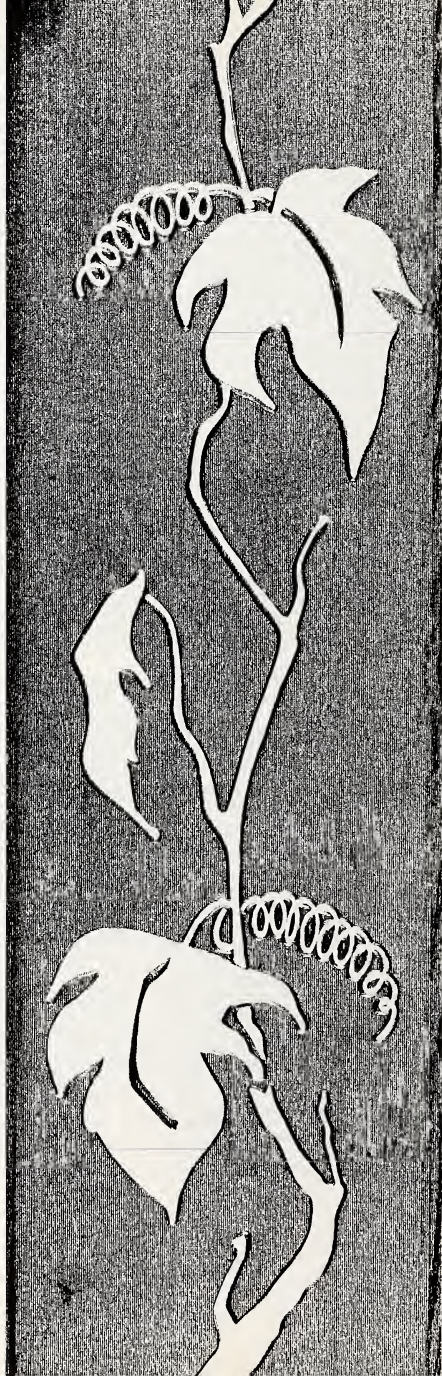

Yes, five heads are better than one.

We need a traffic cop!

Mr. Medford instructs on the use of electronic testers.

Epilogue

The fall and rise of the sun;
Darkness, light;
Birth, youth; life, death;
Day, night—
All these, with speed,
Come and go.
Where are you,
And what do you know?
Maybe in this sunrise
There is another day, a new page.
But, careful—you can't be sure.
Take a bow when you leave each stage!

The Greenbriar staff wishes to thank the merchants for their contributions to our annual. We appreciate the interest they have shown.
